RAIDERS TO PLAY IN FIVE PRIME-TIME GAMES IN 2017, MOST SINCE AFL/NFL MERGER

2017 HIGHLIGHTS

In their 58th season of play, the Raiders will play in five prime-time games in 2017, the most the team has played in since the AFL/NFL merger in 1970.

The schedule includes six games against playoff teams from 2016.

The Raiders have three back-to-back road trips in 2017 (Sept. 24 at Washington and Oct. 1. at Denver; Oct. 29 at Buffalo and Nov. 5 at Miami; Dec. 25 at Philadelphia and Dec. 31 at LA Chargers).

The Raiders have three straight home games twice (Weeks 5-7 and Weeks 11-13), but the team's Week 11 game vs. New England is a home game in Mexico City.

This year will mark the the third straight season that the Raiders will play at Tennessee, and the third consecutive season they will play the Baltimore Ravens.

Three of the team's first four games will come on the road for the second consecutive year.

Three of the team's last four games will come on the road for the second straight year.

Three of the team's four games against the NFC East will come in December.

The Raiders will open the season at the Tennessee Titans for the fourth time since the Titans franchise moved from Houston to Tennessee (1997, 2003, 2010 and 2017). This is the 10th time overall that the Raiders have played the franchise in the season opener.

The Raiders will have a Week 10 bye followed by a home game in Mexico City for the second straight year.

The Raiders will play in Philadelphia and in Washington this year, the first time in each of those cities since 2005.

The Raiders will host the Cowboys and Giants for the first time since 2005.

The Dec. 25 game at Philadelphia is the Raiders' first Christmas Day game since 2004 when they played at the Kansas City Chiefs. The game is also the Raiders first appearance on Monday Night Football on Christmas Day.

The season finale will be at the Chargers for the first time since 2012, and it marks the fourth straight season that the Raiders will finish up on the road. It will also be the first time since 2012 that the Raiders will finish with two straight away games.

RAIDERS

DEL RIO VS. '17 OPPONENTS

Raiders Head Coach Jack Del Rio enters his third season at the helm in 2017, and brings a 90-85 career record into the season after spending nearly nine seasons as the head coach of the Jacksonville Jaguars from 2003-11. Del Rio posted a 12-4 record last year, returning the Raiders to the playoffs for the first time since 2002, and posted a 7-9 record in 2015, his first season in charge of the Silver and Black. Over his career, Del Rio has posted a .500 record or better against nine of the Raider's 2017 opponents. Below is a look at Del Rio's records:

AFC West:

Denver Broncos: 6-3
 Kansas City Chiefs: 5-6
 Los Angeles Chargers: 7-2

AFC East:

Buffalo Bills: 5-3
 Miami Dolphins: 1-2
 New England Patriots: 0-3
 New York Jets: 4-2

AFC North:

Baltimore Ravens: 4-2

AFC South:

Tennessee Titans: 10-9

NFC East:

Dallas Cowboys: 2-0
 New York Giants: 1-1
 Philadelphia Eagles: 1-1
 Washington Redskins: 0-2

2017 SCHEDULE NOTES

RAIDERS VS. '17 OPPONENTS

Below is a look at some key information on the Raiders' 13 opponents for the 2017 season.

Opponent	First met	Last met	Series record
Baltimore	9/1/96	10/2/16	3-6
Buffalo	10/23/60	12/4/16	21-17
Dallas	12/14/74	11/28/13	6-5
Denver	10/2/60	1/1/17	61-50-2
Kansas City	9/16/60	12/8/16	51-60-2
Miami	10/9/66	9/28/14	16-16-1
New England	10/16/60	9/21/14	14-16-1
New York Giants	11/4/73	11/10/13	7-5
New York Jets	12/11/60	11/1/15	22-17-2
Philadelphia	10/17/71	11/3/13	5-6
San Diego	11/27/60	12/18/16	62-50-2
Tennessee	9/11/60	9/25/16	25-20
Washington	10/19/70	9/29/13	7-5

- The Raiders have faced the Chargers 114 times, the most of any opponent. They have faced the Broncos and Chiefs each 113 times, as they only played each team once during the strike-shortened 1982 season.

OAKLAND VS. NFC EAST

Oakland will face off against the NFC East this season, marking the first time since 2013 that they have played the division. Last season, the NFC East produced two post-season participants, the New York Giants and Dallas Cowboys. The Raiders hold a 25-21 combined all-time record against Dallas, New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

RAIDERS VS. NFC EAST IN 2013

Date	Opponent	Result
9/29/13	vs. Washington	L, 14-24
11/3/13	vs. Philadelphia	L, 20-49
11/10/13	at New York	L, 20-24
11/28/13	at Dallas	L, 24-31

SILVER AND BLACK IN PRIME TIME

- The Raiders will play five prime-time games in 2017: an NBC Sunday Night Football matchup with the Washington Redskins on Sept. 24, a Thursday Night Football contest against the division-rival Kansas City Chiefs on Oct. 19, an NBC Sunday Night Football game against the Miami Dolphins on Nov. 5, an NBC Sunday Night Football contest with the Dallas Cowboys on Dec. 17, and concluding with the Raiders' first-ever Monday Night Football game on Christmas Day against the Philadelphia Eagles. The Thursday Night Football contest against the Chiefs will be televised on CBS with a simulcast on NFL Network and streamed live on Amazon.
- The Raiders will appear on Sunday Night Football three times in 2017, marking the second consecutive season that Oakland has been scheduled for a Sunday Night. Last year against the Broncos, the Raiders improved their all-time record on Sunday Night Football to 18-18 following a 30-20 victory over Denver's ball club. In 2013, the Raiders participated in the latest NFL game ever played when they hosted the San Diego Chargers on Oct. 6. Due to an Oakland Athletics' postseason game at Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, the Raiders moved their game to an 8:35 p.m. PT start, marking the latest start time in NFL history.
- The Raiders, 18-18 all-time in Sunday night contests since 1978, are 1-0 against the Cowboys on Sunday night, and will face both the Redskins and Dolphins for the first time on Sunday Night Football.
- This will mark the Raiders' 67th contest on Monday Night Football and second consecutive year after playing in the first Monday Night Football contest outside of the United States last season in Mexico City, Mexico against the Houston Texans. The Raiders will be visiting the Philadelphia Eagles to play their first-ever Monday Night Football game on Christmas Day. It will also be the Raiders' first matchup with the Eagles on Monday Night Football. The only Monday Night Football game the Raiders have played against one of the four current NFC East franchises was a contest against the Washington Redskins on Oct. 19, 1970 at home in Oakland. The Raiders won that game, 34-20.
- Oakland holds a 38-27-1 all-time record in Monday Night Football contests. The Silver and Black last played on Monday Night Football on Nov. 21, 2016 vs. the Houston Texans. The Raiders won that contest, 27-20.
- On Thursdays, the Raiders are 9-10 all-time, including a 3-4 record on Thanksgiving Days. In 11 Thursday games vs. the AFC West, Oakland is 8-4 and 2-2 against the Chiefs.
- The Raiders have split the last two Thursday Night Football meetings against the Chiefs, as they defeated Kansas City at home in 2014 by a score of 24-20, and fell to the team at Arrowhead Stadium last season, 21-13. In the defeat, DE Khalil Mack tied an NFL record by recording a sack in his eighth consecutive game.

SCHEDULE/OPPONENT NOTES

DIVISIONAL BREAKDOWN

AFC WEST: Denver Broncos, Kansas City Chiefs, Los Angeles Chargers

- The Chiefs finished 12-4 and won the AFC West title in 2016, snapping the Broncos' five-year division winning streak.
- The Raiders finished 3-3 against the AFC West for the second consecutive season, the first time finishing .500-or-better in the division in back-to-back seasons since 2010-11.
- Since divisional realignment in 2002, the Raiders have posted a winning record in the AFC West twice: 4-2 in 2002 and 6-0 in 2010.

AFC EAST: Buffalo Bills, Miami Dolphins, New England Patriots, New York Jets

- The Raiders hold a 73-66-4 (.524) record against AFC East opposition.
- The Silver and Black last played the division in 2014, finishing 1-3, but have not lost in Oakland to an opponent from the AFC East since Oct. 2, 2011 against New England.

AFC NORTH: Baltimore Ravens

- Oakland owns a 44-36 (.550) combined all-time advantage against AFC North opponents, and will face the Ravens for the third consecutive year after winning the last two.

AFC SOUTH: Tennessee Titans

- The Raiders are 41-35 (.539) all-time against the AFC South, with the team's best mark coming against the Titans (25-20), and will play them for the third consecutive year, winning the last two.

NFC EAST: Dallas Cowboys, New York Giants, Philadelphia Eagles, Washington Redskins

- The NFC East features two 2016 playoff teams in Dallas and New York, as the Cowboys also posted the best record in the NFC at 13-3. The Raiders are a combined 25-21 (.543) against NFC East teams.

STADIUM STATS

- The Raiders have a 202-224-8 all-time record on the road.
- The Raiders are looking for their second consecutive season with six-or-more wins on the road since 1967-68, after finishing the 2016 season with a 6-2 record on the road.
- The Raiders will play in 10 different stadiums during the 2017 regular season, including one game at Estadio Azteca in Mexico City.
- Three of the stadiums the Raiders will play in this year have opened since 2000 – Sports Authority Field at Mile High (2001), StubHub Center (2003) and Lincoln Financial Field (2003).
- The Raiders have played more road games in Arrowhead Stadium than in any other stadium, followed by Sports Authority Field at Mile High.

BALTIMORE RAVENS

Sun., Oct. 8 at 1:05 p.m., Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum

- Baltimore leads the all-time series, 6-3.
- This season's matchup will mark the third straight year the two teams have faced off.
- The Raiders won their last meeting on Oct. 2, 2016 with 28-27 victory in Baltimore, earning their first win streak in the series.
- Oakland's two-game win streak includes a 37-33 win on Sept. 20, 2015, which snapped a four-game skid against Baltimore.
- The Raiders and Ravens have faced off once in the postseason, the AFC Championship Game on Jan. 14, 2001, which Baltimore won 16-3 on the way to the Ravens' Super Bowl XXXV title.
- Raiders Head Coach Jack Del Rio coached the Ravens linebackers from 1999-2001, helping Ray Lewis earn AP NFL Defensive Player of the Year honors and the Super Bowl XXXV MVP award, as the Ravens allowed just one postseason touchdown throughout the team's 2000 Super Bowl run.
- Raiders cornerbacks coach Rod Woodson played for Baltimore from 1999-2001, where he earned his only Super Bowl title following the 2000 season.
- Raiders OL Kelechi Osemele was drafted by the Ravens in the second round of the 2012 NFL Draft and played four seasons for Baltimore before joining the Raiders in 2016.

TENNESSEE TITANS

Sun., Sept. 10 at 10:00 a.m., Nissan Stadium

- Oakland leads the all-time series, 25-20, with a 4-0 record in the postseason.
- The Raiders won the previous matchup in Week 3 of last season, defeating the Titans 17-10 in Tennessee.
- This season's matchup between the two teams will mark the first time the Raiders have played in Tennessee in three straight seasons.
- Oakland holds a combined 13-14 record on the road against the Oilers and Titans.
- Oakland will look to win their third consecutive contest against Tennessee. The Raiders last took three straight games with wins on Sept. 11, 1983, Sept. 2, 1984 and Oct. 26, 1986, when the Titans were located in Houston.
- The Raiders have won all four postseason contests against the Houston Oilers/Tennessee Titans including the 1967 AFL Championship Game on Dec. 31, 1967 (40-7) and the 2002 AFC Championship Game on Jan. 19, 2003 (41-24).
- In Week 3, Raiders K Sebastian Janikowski became the NFL's all-time leader in field goals of 50-or-more yards (53), when he made a 52-yarder in the second quarter.

PRESEASON/AFC WEST NOTES

PRESEASON OPPONENTS

- The Silver and Black are 128-129-1 (.498) all-time in preseason contests.
- Oakland faced two of its four preseason opponents in last season's preseason, winning their contest against the Cardinals in Arizona, and falling in the preseason finale to the Seahawks at home in Oakland.
- The Raiders will travel to Arizona in Week 1 of the preseason, marking the second consecutive exhibition meeting between the teams at University of Phoenix Stadium, and third straight year playing the Cardinals in preseason action after playing in Oakland in 2015.
- This Raiders' first home contest in Week 2 will mark the first time they have met the Rams in exhibition or regular-season play since the team relocated to Los Angeles.
- The Silver and Black will head to Dallas for Week 3 of the preseason and face the Cowboys for their 30th all-time exhibition matchup with the club, the most exhibition games played between any opponent.
- The Raiders will conclude their preseason slate at home in Week 4 against the Seahawks. The game will mark the 12th straight season the Raiders have concluded their preseason schedule against the Seahawks, with four of those 12 games coming in Oakland.

KANSAS CITY CHIEFS

Thu., Oct. 19 at 5:25 p.m., Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Sun., Dec. 10 at 10:00 a.m., Arrowhead Stadium

- The Raiders have played 113 games against Kansas City and trail, 51-60-2 (.460), in the all-time series.
- Oakland will be seeking its first win at Arrowhead Stadium since Oct. 28, 2012 (26-16). The Raiders are 24-32-1 all-time at Kansas City.
- In Week 6, WR Amari Cooper surpassed Hall of Fame RB Marcus Allen for most receptions by a Raider in their first two seasons (107), as he also became the first Raider since WR Jerry Rice in 2002 to record nine-plus receptions in the first half.
- In Week 14, DE Khalil Mack recorded a sack for the eight consecutive game, tying an NFL record for consecutive games with a sack in a single season. On the sack, Mack also forced a fumble, his third consecutive game notching a sack-fumble.
- Raiders CB Sean Smith joined Oakland in 2016 as an unrestricted free agent in after playing three seasons with the Chiefs, appearing in 45 games with 44 starts while totaling 142 tackles (130 solo), 41 passes defensed and 5 interceptions.
- Raiders C Rodney Hudson spent four years in Kansas City, playing in 51 games with 35 starts from 2011-14.
- Raiders running backs coach Bernie Parmalee coached the Chiefs' tight ends from 2010-12.

DENVER BRONCOS

Sun., Oct. 1 at 1:25 p.m., Sports Authority Field at Mile High
Sun., Nov. 26 at 1:25 p.m., Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum

- Oakland has played Denver 113 times in the regular season, with two meetings in every season since 1960, except the strike-shortened season of 1982. The Raiders own a 61-50-2 (.549) advantage in the all-time series.
- The Raiders split the season series with the Broncos in 2016, taking the first at home by a score of 30-20, and falling in the regular-season finale in Denver, 6-24.
- Behind the Raiders' 41:28 time of possession, the team was victorious over the Broncos at home for the first time since 2010, when they won by a score of 39-23. The 41:28 T.O.P. was the most by any team in 2016 in a non-overtime game.
- The Silver and Black also muscled 30 first downs against Denver at home in Week 9, most during the year by the Raiders' offense and most allowed by the Broncos' defense in their last 76 games to date, a span lasting over four seasons.
- In Week 9, DE Khalil Mack sacked QB Trevor Siemian two times, marking his seventh sack against the Broncos in his last two games. Mack also forced and recovered a fumble, and earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors for his performance.
- Raiders Head Coach Jack Del Rio spent three seasons (2012-14) as the Broncos' defensive coordinator, helping them to three straight AFC West titles, two AFC Championship games and an appearance in Super Bowl XLVIII. Del Rio served as interim head coach from Weeks 10-13 in 2013, posting a 3-1 record.

LOS ANGELES CHARGERS

Sun., Oct. 15 at 1:25 p.m., Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum
Sun., Dec. 31 at 1:25 p.m., Stubhub Center

- Oakland has played 114 regular season games against the Chargers and leads the all-time series, 62-50-2 (.553).
- Last season, the Raiders swept the season series for the second consecutive year, marking the first time the team has swept the Chargers in back-to-back seasons since 2001-02.
- In Week 5 of last year, Oakland beat the Chargers 34-31 to earn its first home victory of the season, and marked their first three-game winning streak since Weeks 10-12 of the 2011 campaign.
- In the first meeting, WR Amari Cooper surpassed Rod Streater (1,472) on a 64-yard touchdown reception for most receiving yards through a player's first two seasons in franchise history. Cooper finished with six receptions for a game-high 138 yards.
- In Week 15 of last year, the Raiders defeated the Chargers at Qualcomm Stadium, to clinch their first postseason berth since 2002.
- Raiders DE Khalil Mack and Chargers RB Branden Oliver were teammates and roommates at Buffalo from 2010-13.
- Raiders assistant head coach - defensive assistant John Pagano served as the defensive coordinator for the Chargers from 2012-16. Over those five seasons, Pagano's defense ranked 13th in the NFL in total net yards per game allowed (348.1)

AFC EAST NOTES

BUFFALO BILLS

Sun., Oct. 29 at 10:00 a.m., New Era Stadium

- Oakland leads the all-time series, 21-17 (.553).
- The Raiders won the last meeting against the Bills, 38-24, on Dec. 4, 2016 in Oakland.
- Buffalo holds a lead over the Raiders at home, 12-7, and have won the last two games played at New Era Stadium.
- The first meeting in the all-time series took place on Oct. 23, 1960, when the Bills beat the Raiders in Buffalo, 38-9.
